Dear Minister,

It was a pleasure to see you last Thursday afternoon at the Cypriot Community Centre in Wood Green and having the opportunity to listen to you and the other guests present.

I put a question to you for which your reply did not leave me completely satisfied and hence the present letter to you. My question was “Is our Government prepared to use practical measures to persuade or even force Turkey to abide by the ECHR judgement against her regarding the issue of our Missing”?

In your reply you talked about the work of the CMP, which we all fully appreciate and endorse and said that the FO is in constant dialogue with the Turkish Government on the issue of the Missing. I did not hear anything about any proposed practical measures to be taken to ensure Turkey abides by the ECHR judgement. If you did and I did not hear it, please accept my apologies, as I was right at the back of the room and it was a little difficult to hear everything clearly.

I would be very grateful if I could have your comments on this issue in writing please.

Thanking you.

Yours sincerely,

Costas Paul
E. Secretary.
